Investing in Dynamic Leaders

Prioritizing human capital is critical to achieving lasting social impact. A commonly missed opportunity in the nonprofit sector is investing in new and emerging leaders. By joining Invest in Success, nonprofit leaders become part of an intimate cohort focused on learning important principles of dynamic leadership that are practical and applicable to the needs of their organization.

Why Participate?

- No-cost program designed to empower nonprofit leaders in Salt Lake, Tooele, and across Utah
- Customized content designed and led by a national facilitator to fit participants' needs
- Interactive virtual cohort that meets 2 hours each week
- Connections to a long-lasting network of peers
- Opportunity to apply for up to $5,000 capacity-building grant

Participant Qualifications

- Must serve in a management level position of a Utah-based 501(c)(3). Preference will be given to organizations in Salt Lake and Tooele counties.
- Organization must serve a CRA-eligible (low-income) community or population, including Native Americans.
- Organization must be focused on economic development or human services.
- Must have a strong desire to build skills in order to help the organization become more effective, sustainable and resilient.
- Must face significant barriers of time or discretionary funds to access other professional development opportunities.

How to Nominate

Nominate a new or emerging leader in your organization here (form takes less than 5 minutes to complete). Nominations are due by August 31st, 2021.

“As a new nonprofit director, Invest in Success was, simply, the most worthwhile experience I have had in my efforts to grow as a leader.”

-Josie Luke, Past Executive Director, Boys and Girls Club Carbon County

For More Information

Please call the Community Foundation of Utah at (801) 559-3005 x5 or email lara@utahcf.org with questions.